

2012 RALLY WEEKEND

Friday 2nd to Sunday 4th March 2012

Central Foundation Boys' School, Cowper Street, London EC2A 4SH

Registered Charity
SC038957

Stallholder opportunities

A large hall will be available for organisations to set up stalls, for either information / publicity purposes, or to run as a trade stall.

The BMG Federation is expecting the 2012 Rally to be attended by over 250 enthusiastic players of plucked string instruments. As well as the banjo, mandolin and guitar, there are sessions on the lute and the ukulele.

Stall holders have the choice of operating on Saturday or Sunday, or both days of the Rally. Up to two tables are available per organisation.

Attendees typically purchase:

- Accessories (picks, strings, tuners, stands, etc.);
- New instruments;
- Sheet music;
- Instruction materials.

They will also be interested in:

- Seeing instruments that are there for display only;
- Picking up information about organisations and events of interest.

Costs

The cost per table is £25 for each day, or £40 per table for both Saturday and Sunday (maximum of two tables).

Next steps

For more information about the Rally please see <http://www.banjomandolinguitar.org/rally.htm>.

If you are interested in being a stallholder at the BMG Federation Rally, please submit the attached the booking form directly to Henry Girvan.
